Without exception, funds will be issued to the sport organization named for the program requested.

Requirements to Determine Whether Applicant and His/Her Family Qualify

In order for A4K to qualify as a registered charity, all beneficiaries of funding must meet very strict requirements. As such, in order to meet these requirements, all individuals must be classified as “financially disadvantaged.” Further, the use of funds must be for the purpose of paying entry level athletic fees for participation in specific sports recognized by A4K. A complete description of the A4K Funding Guidelines is available on www.a4k.ca.

Funds cannot be used for the purchase of the following:

- athletic equipment, uniform fees or deposits, field/ice rental costs
- sports camps, private instruction
- rep team fees (including tryout fees)
- activities not recognized by A4K (e.g. dance, cheerleading, etc.)

Applicant, please provide information about the sporting organization to which you wish to apply for A4K funding.
